

National Work Visit Day

Job seeker? Or considering a career change?

On November 18, 2026, you can have an informal conversation with professionals working in a variety of jobs, companies, and industries. Stichting JobOn has gathered hundreds of professionals offering (online) networking conversations. In this informal chat, as a job seeker, you will gain insight into the work of the respective professional. The focus of the Work Visit day is on networking. Job seekers can register via <https://werkbezoekdag.nl/english/>

Why should job seekers participate?

You gain insight into work in other sectors

You meet new people and expand your network

You explore new opportunities in the job market

You get inspiration for a possible career switch

What is the process for Work Visit Day on November 18?

On November 1, we will publish the list of employers on our website. From that date, you can sign up for up to 2 networking conversations.

Will you participate?

Visit our website or scan the QR-code. For questions, email info@werkbezoekdag.nl

